

Your venue is one of the finest in the Santa Fe area, what is your secret?

Uniqueness. Exclusivity. Privacy. But the real secret is allowing couples to decide the wedding they want. Unlike other venues, we allow couples to pick any caterer they wish, handle the bar service themselves, or choose any vendor in any category that they would like. This is our home as well as our rental. Because of this, we have very few limitations so the couple can get what they want in a truly magical location.

What is the best part about getting married at the ranch?

It's a personal residence as opposed to a commercial cookie-cutter venue. From getting ready in the Master Bedroom with its one-of-a-kind "Southwestern Hollywood" vanity, to walking down our flagstone aisle through the antique doors of an adobe wall, and dancing all night long under the New Mexico stars into the wee hours of the morning. What isn't the best part?

How soon should a couple book your venue?

We recommend 18 months in advance in order to ensure each couple gets the wedding weekend of their choosing. Going to our website and starting the conversation through our contact form is the first step. Randy the 'Ranch Hand' will respond to the inquiry within 48 hours. He will be the couple's personal concierge leading up to their wedding and during their stay. He is not a wedding planner, but he can help steer guests in the right direction with any questions or concerns they may have. This is especially great for out of state and international couples (we have had one couple from Colombia and another from India at the Ranch already).

What is the maximum number of guests the ranch can accommodate?

We can handle up to 300 wedding day guests and 24+ can stay at the ranch overnight at the Main Lodge. But just recently, we added two Conestoga Wagons where 8 additional guests can stay during the duration of the wedding weekend.

Do you have any special wedding packages available for couples?

We offer half price on Thursdays and Mondays for free when you book on a Friday, Saturday and Sunday. And as noted above we also allow for a free 4-hour photo session on the day of your choosing (based on availability).
