10 Too-Cute Ways to Include Pets in your Wedding

Not all weddings or wedding venues are as “pet friendly” as Blame Her Ranch, where we believe your beloved pets are not only welcome but should play a role in the wedding itself. BHR, with over 2000 acres, a dog run, dog beds and a dog spa room is the ideal place for couples to incorporate the most important member of the family! We have even gone to the trouble of building pet steps up to our elevated king bed in the bridal suite so your furry friend can enjoy the start of your journey as a married couple.

When considering the following pet wedding ideas, first take into account your pet’s personality and whether your venue allows pets on the premises, like BHR. Many couples choose to have their furry companions present for the “I do’s” and reception festivities. Have your dog walk down the aisle with the bridesmaids, or stand with the groomsmen as you say your vows. Your furry friend can even dress for the occasion.

No matter which route you choose, notify all of your vendors so they can help you plan ahead and ensure a pet-friendly environment. If your pet can’t make it to the big day, don’t fret. You can use your relationship with your pet as inspiration for your wedding stationery, décor, favours, cake and more. Have an illustration of your pup drawn up for your invitations! And, instead of the standard newlywed wedding cake topper, you can have a replica of your precious pet made for the top of your confection. The pet wedding ideas are truly endless.

CHECK OUT OUR 10 FAVOURITE PET WEDDING IDEAS BELOW:

1. WALK DOWN THE AISLE

TOGETHER: Your pet is your ultimate furry companion who has been there for you through all of the ups and downs, so why not have them accompany you down the aisle too!

2. POSE FOR PICTURES: Pose your fur baby next to your gown for a still-life shot that’s too cute for words.

3. DRESS YOUR PET IN FESTIVE ATTIRE: A dapper dog makes himself right at home in fluffy layers of fabric to accompany the wedding dress.

4. HAVE PHOTO BOOTH PROPS: Create a giant cutout of your pet’s face as a must-have in your photo booth props arsenal. Here at BHR, we have our own photo booth so this can be handled easily. How fun is this!

5. INCORPORATE YOUR PET’S LIKENESS INTO THE BRIDAL ENSEMBLE: One bride had her veil embroidered with the sweetest depiction of her cherished dog. Now, that’s love!

6. HAVE A RING BEARER: Have your dog carry a specially designed pillow for his or her grand debut (entrust the real rings to the best man).

7. WRAP THEIR LEASH IN GREENERY: A harness and leash completely covered with flowers are 100 per cent Instagram-worthy.

8. DRESS HIM UP IN A TUX: You can actually dress your pup in a tux that looks dapper as can be.

9. MAKE THE CAKE A FAMILY AFFAIR: A cake topper with your pet’s seal of approval is a definite crowd-pleaser.

10. CONSIDER GIVING BACK: Instead of a traditional wedding favour, pay it forward with a donation to an animal rescue program or the RSPCA.

Dog-gone it, those are some great ideas and you will get all of your guests’ “tails wagging” by incorporating any of these into your wedding. Anyone coming to BHR, make sure you get your couple’s tequila picture taken with your pet! WHL
