DO YOUR WEDDING A "FAVOUR"

15 wedding favours that will delight your guests

Anyone who follows our Instagram account @BlameHerRanchSantaFe knows of our tequila tradition at Blame Her Ranch. But for those who don't, we ask each couple to bring their favourite tequila to the "Drink A Little, Rub A Little" bar. We encourage the couple and their guests to enjoy their tequila in BHR shot glasses or our BHR Corkcicle glasses. This, plus many other items, make for perfect wedding favours and can be purchased directly online from our BHR website.

Whether it's our BHR customised items or something you give out, each wedding needs its own wedding favours. Here are just some other thoughts to get you thinking.

- 1. Pressed Flowers: Calligraph your guests' names and seating assignments onto framed pressed flowers and voila, a one-of-a-kind place card and wedding favour two-in-one!
- 2. Chocolate Bars: An illustrated label makes a chocolate bar infinitely more sophisticated. Dark or milk is up to you, but the bars are sure to be a hit for guests with a sweet tooth (so, everyone!)
- 3. Cocktail Kits: The best hosts keep the party going long after the night comes to a close. Do just that by sending guests home with ingredients for the perfect Moscow Mules or our famous BHR Margarita.
- 4. Seeds: Bags of seeds are generally seen as a symbol of growth and harmony, which makes them a meaningful wedding favour. You can use any flowers you like, but it'll be especially touching to gift a type of bloom that was used throughout your special day.
- 5. Snack To Go: A bottle of coke, fries and burgers make the ultimate late-night snack and will help satisfy your guests' post-drinking cravings!
- 6. Bottle Openers: There's a good chance your guests will use bottle openers every week, which means they'll think of your special day each time they crack open a cold one.
- 7. Potpourri: Set up a potpourri station, where your guests can scoop fragrant herbs into illustrated sacks!

- 8. Temporary Tattoos: Do you know what makes a great photo booth snapshot? A group of your best friends, all sporting tattoos of you and your love's faces! What fun! Our photo booth is set up perfectly for these individual or group shots!
- 9. Sleep Masks: There's nothing like the gift of sleep, which makes silky smooth sleep masks the ultimate favour!
- 10. Worry Dolls: "Worry Dolls" are an important part of the Guatemalan culture, and are often gifted as emblems of peace and love!
- 11. Fans: Colourful, handmade fans keep guests cool during summertime ceremonies and also serve as the perfect photo booth prop!
- 12. For The Kids: Keep it simple on the kids table! A pack of crayons, a clipboard of fresh paper and pair of cute shades are all you need to keep the little ones content throughout the event.
- 13. Jelly Beans: Here's a "bright" idea: fill a mini lightbulb with your favourite jelly beans. Tie them with name tags if you'd like them to double up as place cards!
- 14. Mini Succulents: Potted succulents and cacti make for perfect takeaways. Pop in staked tags to transform them into live place cards!
- 15. Key Chains: Opt for millennial pink key chains, emblazoned with an equally-millennial slogan, pink for your girls or navy versions for the guys. How about for the girls: "Sunny with a chance of Rose".

You have to admit these are some fun favours that will put a smile on everyone's face and keep your wedding memories alive for years to come! WH
